Thinking about hosting a food drive?

Here are the steps on how:

1. Set a date
   - Pick a date that will work well for your group or organization
   - Contact Nichole Lucas (nrlucas@iastate.edu) and/or Savannah Schultz (schultzz@iastate.edu) with any concerns or needs
   - We recommend putting up flyers or spreading the word however you feel is best

2. Set up donation box(es)
   - Have donation boxes at designated location(s) at the start of the food drive

3. Collection of food
   - Set up a time with Savannah and Nichole to drop off food if outside of operational hours
   - We will also work with you to help pick up the food if needed

We appreciate all donations, but can only accept nonperishable food items as well as toiletry items at this time. See our website for our donation list.
